Minutes of the 2005 Annual Meeting of the Hartwells of America

With its customary hospitality, the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church, Concord, MA welcomed the Association for its 68th Annual Reunion, held on June 25, 2005.

President Wayne Hartwell, Foxborough, MA, called the business meeting to order at 1:00 p.m. An opening prayer was offered by Roger Whichter Hartwell, Quincy, MA, and the assemblage observed a moment of prayer in remembrance of departed Hartwell cousins.

The minutes of the 2004 Meeting, as published in the Newsletter (with a couple of editorial amendments, e.g., the meeting was not on June 36), were accepted.

Treasurer David Hartwell Webber, Dunstable, MA, reported on the Association's financial well-being as of the end of its fiscal year 2005. As of June 25, 2005, the Scholarship Fund stood at $9332.36 and the Operating Fund at $3,037.89. Total funds on hand reflected a $161.88 decrease from the end of fiscal year 2004. Receipts for the year from interest, dues, Hartwell literature, and donations to the Scholarship Fund totaled $1,066.45; expenditures for the 2005 Reunion, Newsletter, Scholarship, and printing of dues cards were $1,228.23.

Scholarship Committee Chairperson Victoria H. C. Rogers, Otisfield, ME, announced the award of a $200 grant for the 2005-2006 academic year to John Paul Hartwell. [Ed. Note: as of this writing, John's bio. information has gone missing; we'll include it in the next Newsletter].

Genealogist Joy Hartwell Peach provided sketches and discussion of inventions patented by Hartwells (researched by Charles A.<sup>10</sup> Hartwell; for details see Spring, 2005 edition of Newsletter). The most macabre has to have been that of Bartholomew Hartwell of Baltimore, MD, who in 1875 received a patent for a "corpse-preserving casket." Joy also reported that the Genealogy Committee had retained the services of a professional copy editor/book designer to put the finishing touches on the the first volume containing the first five generations. [Ed. note: it's done!].

Receiving the commemorative gifts for the day were our hostess, Marian Wheeler, Concord, MA Eldest Lady in attendance, Warren Hartwell, Swampscott, MA, Eldest Gentleman, and Tina Seeger, Pepperell, MA, Youngest in attendance. For traveling furthest to attend, a tie was declared between first-time Reunion attendees Deborah L. Hartwell, Philadelphia, PA and Karen H. Samuels, Bethlehem, PA.

Youngest in attendance, Tina Seeger, Pepperell, MA

Eldest Lady, Marian Wheeler, Concord, MA

Traveling furthest to attend, Deborah L. Hartwell, Philadelphia, PA and Karen H. Samuels, Bethlehem, PA

Eldest Gentleman, Warren Hartwell, Swampscott, MA

CEMETERY RESTORATION

Kudos to Rene' Meyer-North who has been working to restore two cemeteries she discovered on agricultural land belonging to her father in Cohocton, Steuben County, New York. These cemeteries, on Lent Hill, were completely hidden from view when Rene' happened across them. Stones were broken and/or lying on their sides and weeds covered everything. Rene', who lives in Florida, spends her vacations in New York, trying to restore some semblance of order to these abandoned cemeteries. She has documented all the stones, and given the information to a local historical society, as well as posting some of the information on the web. Of particular interest to Hartwells are three stones: 1. Elizabeth (Hartwell) Lent, dau. of Samuel and Elizabeth (Wilkinson) Hartwell and wife of Abraham Lent; who was born 31 Dec. 1786 and died 18 June 1849; 2. Aaron Hartwell, who died 19 September 1864, age 36; 3. Aaron's wife, Lucy Jane (Hatch) Hartwell, who died 1 November 1860, age 24. Aaron's history was, and still is, something of a puzzle, but Rene's discovery has helped a little.

I'll try to explain the Aaron problem. Four Aaron Hartwells appear on the 1850 federal census for New York, all within a short distance of one another. They are:

1. Aaron Hartwell, age 50, carpenter, living with [presumed] wife Maria Hartwell, 29, [presumed] children, Lydia Hartwell, 17, Emma Hartwell, 13, Jerome Hartwell, 11, Franklin Hartwell, 10, Sophia Hartwell, 8, Samuel Hartwell 4, and [presumed] father Samuel Hartwell, 90, farmer, in Cohocton, Steuben County, NY. (Presumed because the 1850 census doesn't give the relationships between the members of a given household — it was 1880 before the government mandated that!)

2. Aaron Hartwell, age 24, laborer, living in the household of William and Julia Ashley in Richmond, Ontario County, NY.

Identification: a mystery. There is a possibility that he is the same as #4. Sometimes people were counted twice in census records, especially if they were living somewhere other than home, even though people were supposed to be counted only if they were living in the home at the time the census taker called.

3. Aaron Hartwell, age 23, with [presumed] wife Jane, age 19, and [presumed] son Harmon, age 2/12 in Springwater, Livingston County, NY.

4. Aaron Hartwell, age 22, in a household headed by his [presumed] brother Samuel and containing his [presumed] brothers and sisters and his [presumed] grandmother, Elizabeth (Wilkinson) Hartwell, also in Cohocton, Steuben County.

The puzzling thing about this Aaron is that he is listed on the 1860 census in Cohocton, New York as Aaron S. Hartwell, age 35, farm laborer, head of a household consisting of himself, Lucy J. Hatch, age 24, Tryphena E. Hatch, age 4, and Webster P. Hatch, age 11/12. Then, in 1870, Tryphena E. Hartwell, age 14, and Webster P.

Hartwell, age 11 are living with Aaron's brother, Moses, and in 1880, Webster Hartwell is still living with Moses, and is identified as Moses' son!

The fact that Aaron aged from 22 to 35 in 10 years time doesn't bother me too much. Ages on census records are notoriously inaccurate, and if Aaron is also #2, then he really only aged 1 year between 1850-1860, which could be explained by the fact that the census was taken in different months. The real puzzle is why Lucy J., Tryphena, and Webster are surnamed Hatch in 1860, when they are surely the wife and children of Aaron. No marriage record has been found for Aaron and Lucy, but Lucy's gravestone identifies her as Aaron's wife, and surely little Tryphena was named for Aaron's mother. Tryphena is not a very common given name. What happened to the children is unknown. Tryphena could have died or married before the 1880 census was taken, and no record beyond that census has been found for Webster, which is also not a terribly common given name. Other questions are: who took care of the children when Aaron went into the Army? Was his death related to his Civil War service? If so, he should be listed on the Roll of Honor, but he is not found there.

HISTORIC LETTERS

The spring newsletter of the Littleton (Mass.) Historical Society contains an item about sixteen recently acquired letters written by Thomas Wheeler<sup>7</sup> and Diana (Staples) Hartwell outlining their adventures in moving from Littleton to Illinois about 1836. LHS says the letters can be easily read in one afternoon and give a vivid picture of Thomas and Diana's struggles on what was then the frontier. Anyone interested in reading these letters can visit the Littleton Historical Society any Wednesday afternoon, when they are open from 1 to 4 pm.

Genealogist's note: Thomas W. Hartwell died at Belvidere, IL 5 Jan. 1848, age 38, leaving his wife and eleven-year old son, George H. Diana soon remarried and had more children with her second husband, Charles Whitman. The last record I have found of George H. Hartwell is the 1880 federal census, where George is shown as a widowed carpenter in 1st Ward, Belvidere, IL, with his sons Frank L., George and Edward. It would be nice to have more information on the descendants of Thomas and Diana Hartwell.
